LFIG LABOUR PARTY CONFERENCE FRINGE EVENT

“INCREASING TRADE TO IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH THE MUSLIM AND 3rd WORLD NATIONS”

We have all been impacted by the recent bombings in London and the escalation of terrorism throughout the World. It is time for imaginative and creative solutions to the problems facing Western powers and their need for security and the problems facing the Muslim and 3rd world populations and their need for improvements in their living standards. LFIG recognises the importance of increasing international trade as a means of developing and improving our relations and understanding with the developing world and in particular, Muslim countries.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- IAN PEARSON MP (Minister of Trade & Industry)
- NIGEL GRIFFITHS MP (Deputy Leader of the House of Commons)
- SIR PETER HEAP (LFIG Chairman) & others

Here is your chance to meet the ministers and hear what they have to say as well as put your own thoughts across! We look forward to seeing you!

Meeting at 12:00 for 12:30 on Wednesday 28th September 2005
Hilton Hotel West Pier, “Ashdown Suite” Kings Road, Brighton

Drinks & Buffet , FREE Admission, further details contact:
David Smuts 07973 600483, email dsmuts@lfig.org, web www.lfig.org
